Meeting Night Changed.
Beginning this week the Knights of Pythias lodge will meet on Friday night instead of Thursday, as heretofore. Attendance at the lodge is increasing and a lot of "work" is on hand.

Paint Lick Lodge, 149, F. A. M.
At the annual election held by this lodge, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: John Allen Conn, w. m.; Wm. M. Brown, j. w.; R. N. Beazley, sec'y; James A. Scott, treas.; S. C. Henderson, s. and t.; Marion Carter, s. d.; W. T. Short, j. d.

Estray.
On Tuesday, Dec. 27th 1898, a black and white spotted Poland China sow, with a rap out of one ear two rings in her nose, weight 220 lbs. and will find pigs in February. Finder liberal y rewarded by returning same to R. E. HENRY, Lancaster, Ky.

Its pity Stanford can't conceal its jealousy of the way we are distancing them in up-to-date ways. Come out from between those hills, dear sister, and let the sun shine on you. It may loosen the moss on your back. You can't help becoming mill-dewed down in that hollow.

Goose Supper.
The Masonic Lodge will give a goose supper next Monday night after the regular meeting. All Master Masons, whether lodge members or not, are cordially invited to attend the lodge at this meeting and also help eat the half-dozen geese now being fattened.

Crooke-Campbell.
Bud Crooke and Miss Nannie Campbell, of Richmond, drove down to Lancaster Tuesday evening and were married at the Simpson House by Rev. R. M. Campbell. They remained at the hotel over night and returned to Richmond Wednesday morning. Bud's Lancaster friends extend congratulations.

Something for Xmas.
Buy the best flour the market affords. To do this buy Dix River Beauty, a No. 1 patent, Admiral Dewey, a No. 1 Family flour, Uncle Sam's choice a good every day flour. If your grocer don't keep it, order from the manufacturer. JOHN H. PORTS, Gilbert's Creek, Ky. dec. 23-11 Prompt Delivery.

The Danville Advocate prints the following:
"By the death of a bachelor brother Mrs. Henry Cartwright, wife of the well-known printer, falls heir to something like $15,000. They are now living in Lexington. Mrs. Cartwright was formerly the widow Pascoe, of Lancaster."

We hope this is true, both on her account and that of our former partner, 'Enry.

To be Married the 16th.
Handsomeness invitations have been sent to immediate friends and relatives to attend the marriage of Miss George Burdett Miller, youngest daughter of Col. and Mrs. John W. Miller, and Mr. George Denny Lusk. The wedding will take place at the home of Miss Miller's parents in this city Monday, the 16th, Dr. J. L. McKee performing the ceremony. They will leave immediately for Tyrone, where Mr. Lusk is on duty as U. S. gauger.

For Another Year.

Mrs. U. D. Simpson tells THE REC. that she has rented the Mason Hotel for another year and will continue to keep the reputation of the house up to its present high standing. She is thankful to the public for the liberal share of patronage received during the past year and will strive to merit a continuation of same.

Why This Thunders?
A street fakir disposed of a two-horse wagon load of merchandise in front of the Court House county court day. Its hard to see why people will be gulled by such fakes when they can buy genuine goods at far more reasonable prices at their home stores. Patronize merchants you know to be honorable, upright business men and you will never have cause to regret it.

All Right Now.
The City Council has had a row of gasoline lamps placed between the square and depot. These are lighted at midnight after the electric lamps are turned off. The pavement will soon be completed and then it will not be necessary to engage a ferry boat to get to town, as was the case. The councilmen are hustlers and will soon have everything up-to-date.

Give Us an Order.
During the past ten days, our presses have all been overhauled, new type put in and a handsome line of stock purchased. The latter consists of bill heads, letter heads, statements, shipping tags, and, in fact, everything to be found in a first-class office. We guarantee satisfaction, both as to work and price. What more could you want?

Accounts for Sale.
We have accounts against several parties, for subscription to THE RECORD, which we will sell privately. They are on parties out of whom the money can be made. They are for two to three years time and amount to $2 to $3.50. These parties pay no heed to our appeals, and if some fellow who has the time to get judgments will buy the accounts he can make something out of them. Call at this office.

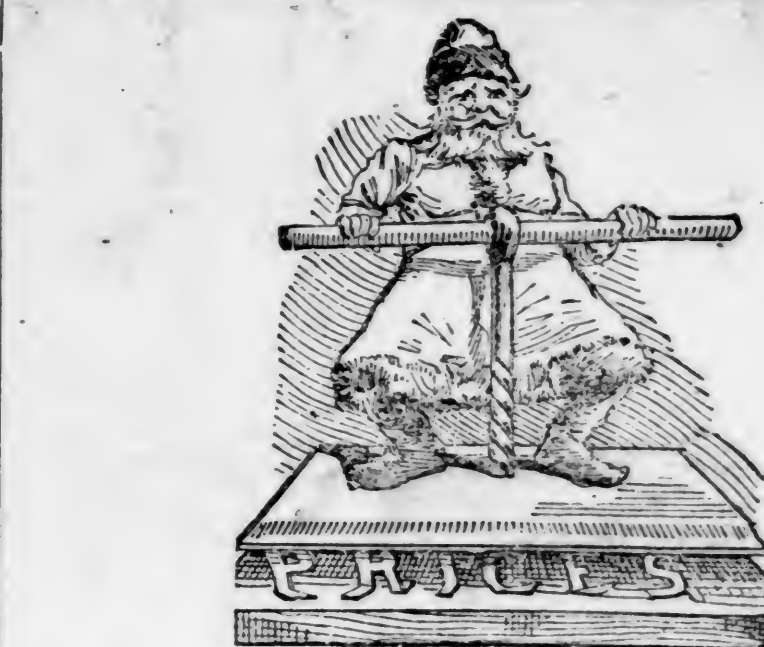

Totten-Petty.
Sam Totten and Miss Annida Petty, two popular young people of this city drove to Stanford Tuesday evening and were married by Eld. Allen. The bride is the second daughter of Joe M. Petty, dec'd, and the groom one of our most promising young men. THE RECORD extends congratulations to the happy pair. They will begin housekeeping in a pretty new home the groom has just completed.

It Should be Done.
The Public Square is one vast mud hole and a lot of money is bound to be spent for repairs, and that quickly. Now, why not make the Park ten feet wider all around, put an asphalt pavement on the outside and then pave the Square with vitrified brick? This can be done for very little more than what a coat of the right kind of rock will cost, and when once fixed it is done for a lifetime. Think about this before whining "It can't be done." Its easier and cheaper to do things right.

Officers Chosen.
Lancaster Lodge, 104, Free and Accepted Masons, held their annual election last week. Louis Landram was re-elected master, Jacob Joseph, senior warden and J. S. Haselden, junior warden. R. Kinnaird was re-elected secretary, and David Ross treasurer. M. E. Prewitt, steward and Tyler. The master appointed T. J. Hatcher senior deacon, and the senior warden selected Robt. Whitaker as junior deacon. The lodge is in fine shape financially, and much interest is being taken in its meetings.

Sleep Producer.
Editor Walton, of the Stanford Journal, has made a discovery which he warrants to produce sound sleep quicker than the average temperance lecture, or home talent show. He says: "Commence with shaking the thumb of your right hand, then the little finger of the same hand, then the little toe of the right foot, the great toe of the same foot, then the great toe of the left foot, the little toe of the same foot, then the little finger of the left hand, the thumb of the same hand and so around and around again in the same way, until nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep, comes quickly and surely to your relief."

Avoid Taking La Grippe.
The dreaded "grippe" is again abroad in the land, and in some places is quite prevalent, and it seems to be extending in all directions. Therefore it becomes important to know how best to meet it. Dr. Feeney of the New York board of health gives some hints as to the best way to treat grip. He says: "Keep good hours. Eat nourishing food. Keep all parts of the body warm, particularly the feet. Avoid dampness and draughts. Keep away from persons known to have the disease." It would seem from this last direction that he regards this disease as contagious or infectious. These directions commend themselves to common sense.

Elegant Banquet to be given at Mason Hotel Tonight. Speeches, Music.
Garrard Lodge No. 29 don't often spread herself in the entertaining line, but when she does set out for a good time, the boys certainly do things up to a Queen's taste. Tonight the lodge will give a public installation of officers in the Court House. No admission fee will be charged and all are cordially invited to be present. The exercises will be interspersed with music and the whole program interesting. When this is done, the members of the lodge, with their wives, sweethearts and invited guest will repair to the Mason Hotel, where the banquet will be given. Mrs. Simpson, who is one of the best hotel managers and overseers in the south, has prepared an excellent menu and the boys are already restless for the time to arrive when they can discuss this excellent

Colored School.
As was previously announced in the columns of THE RECORD, the colored Public School under the management of Prof. C. F. Anderson, held its closing exercises on the 20th and 27th ult. Odd Fellows Hall. The exercises were a success in every way, and standing room was at a premium. Prof. Anderson has placed himself upon record here among his people. The declamatory contest between Misses M. A. Cunningham, Lizzie Yantis Lemon and Sophus Leavell, was excellent. The first named won the medal. The general average over 90.

Misses Addie and Bertha Burnside are visiting Miss Eugenia Dunlap in Lexington. The latter has fully recovered from her severe illness of fever.

John Paul Miller came over from the Lexington State College to eat Christmas turkey and see his girl. Paul is the Record's friend, and a mighty good young fellow.

M. F. Elkin spent Sunday in this city. Mike belongs to almost every secret organization on the globe. He's not only a good lodge man, but a mighty clever fellow all 'round.

Miss May Z. Hughes entertained about thirty couples, to meet her handsome guest, Miss Packard. The occasion was an exceedingly happy one and will be long remembered by those present.

The many Lancaster friends of Walter B. Nichols sympathize with him in the loss of his father, who died at Danville, Saturday. Deceased was seventy-six years of age and an honorable man.

Mr. G. F. Russell and family, of Upper Garrard, left Monday for Paris, Texas to be gone three or four weeks to visit her father, Mr. J. T. Booth and family and the many friends and relations of both.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ward gave a dining Wednesday of Xmas week and their guests numbered from thirty-five to forty. Every one enjoyed the day and especially the dinner and all had a good time generally.

Dr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Grant entertained at a phantom party Wednesday evening. About thirty couples were present and a delightful evening was spent. Refreshments at the proper time were greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Harry Beard, representing the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, has been in the city for several days and joined the party to Crab Orchard Springs Monday evening. Mr. Beard is an excellent young fellow and has made many friends here.

Rev. Ira Parton has moved to town with his family to get the advantage of our Graded School. He has purchased property of J. R. Hill in the back addition. Rev. Parton is a good preacher and has charge of some of the largest churches in Lincoln county.

Misses Allie and Bessie Marksberry, assisted by Mesdames Howard Rice and Louis Landrum, entertained the Sewing Club in honor of their pretty visitor, Miss Retha Bigelow, of Trenton, Tenn. This club, as previously stated, is composed of young and married ladies. It meets once a week and is much enjoyed.

THE SWELL EVENT

Of the Season was the Ball given at Crab Orchard Springs Monday Evening.

When Lancaster folks set their heads at making any undertaking a success, they most always accomplish their object. The young men have been studying for some time as to the best entertainment to give their lady friends during the holidays. Finally a grand ball was decided upon, but as there was no place in town in which to give it, they concluded to charter a special coach and go by railroad to the famous old Crab Orchard Springs.

Monday, at noon, a great crowd of young people, accompanied by several couples of married folks, boarded the noon train, and by two o'clock were safely housed in the handsome "Brick" at the springs. Saxton's band, of eight men, met the crowd at Rowland. Mine Host, Gus Hoffman, assisted by his charming wife, spread one of the finest five o'clock dinners we ever sat down to, and it was greatly appreciated by the merry party, judging from the way the dainty edibles disappeared. The dining rooms and tables were beautifully decorated with holly and evergreens, which, with the snowy linen, pretty dishes and polished silver, made a sight lovely to behold.

The largest dining hall was prettily decorated with flags and evergreens and was brilliantly lighted. The steam heaters made the entire building comfortable, notwithstanding the fact that outdoors the mercury in the thermometer was scrouched in the bottom of the tube.

Promptly at half-past six, the doors of the immense dining hall were thrown open and the merry dancers were soon lost in the dreamy waltz or frolicsome two-step.

Saxton's music is always fine, but on this occasion he fairly out-did himself and each number was heartily enjoyed. His orchestra is, as a pretty girl expressed it, "Divine," and would make even the sour-faced old hypocrite (who sit for hours gassing about dancing) want to cut the pigeon wing. We heard another party say Saxton's music simply picks one up and makes him dance. There's a great deal of truth in the last statement, for even The Record man's old, rusty joints began to twitch when "Sax" would break forth with "Dixie" or "Old Kentucky Home."

The dancing was kept up until twelve o'clock when the party returned to the special train, getting home much earlier than they would have done had the hop been given at home.

We will say for the benefit of the old gossips, that not a single boy had a drink, nor was anything done which will furnish food for the tattlers. We never saw a better behaved or happier crowd, and all will remember the occasion with great pleasure. Those present were Misses Jessie Cook, Sue Woods, Sue Rount, Messrs. Jack Rount, Geo. McRoberts, Lewis Doty, of Stanford; Miss Turley, Mr. Yates, of Richmond; Misses Pearl Holeombe, Eliza, both towns; Dorothea Bigelow, Trenton; Misses Walker and Howell, A. C. Lanta; Miss Packard, St. Joe; Misses Helen and Jean Dick, Crab Orchard Springs; Misses Jeanie and Bessie Burnside, Carrie Curry, Mattie Elkin, Julia Mae Gaines, Aitie Marksberry, Messrs. Herndon, Kinnaird, Faria, Marksberry, Robinson, J. and E. Doty, Burnside, Walker, Shinglers, Batson, A. and W. Doty, Bessie, Hughes, Mount and Harris, of Lancaster; Mess. Beard and Elliott. The chaperones were Messrs. and Mesdames Jno. E. Stormes, A. B. Rice, George D. Robinson, Louis Landrum, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Dick and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hoffman.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Thomas A. Woolfolk, who died in Lexington, Ky., on Dec. 13, 1898, was for many years one of the most popular citizens of Garrard county. He was born in Lynchburg, Ky., Sept. 1st 1814 and was brought to his grandfather's farm, near the mouth of Back Creek, this county, in 1818, where he lived for 55 years. He was, for a number of years, a firm and working member of the Antioch church, in that vicinity, and his words of admonition and deeds for good are well remembered in that community. The remains were interred in Lancaster Cemetery, and the large crowd in attendance, evidenced clearly the high repute in which he was held.

He moved to Lexington about five years ago, where he resided until his death. He leaves a widow and six children: Mrs. T. L. Broadus and Mrs. Robert Gulley, of this county, and Mrs. George Murphy, Mrs. W. M. Gulley, Messrs. W. T. and J. C. Woolfolk of Lexington, the last two being well-known wholesale grocers, in that city. All the family are proving that they were properly reared, by living a life of Christian devotion and usefulness. If we had more men like "Uncle Tommy" Woolfolk, we would have much less use for sheriffs, policemen and criminal courts.

Horrible agony is caused by Piles, Burns and skin diseases. These are immediately relieved and quickly cured by Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless imitations.

MARKSBURY.

Quite a crowd of young people stormed Mary Kuykendall on the evening of the 26th, in honor of her charming guest, Virginia Nunn.

Mr. Myers and daughter, Sallie Lou, will move to their new home near McCree, in a few days. The young people of this community regret to give Sallie Lou up, as she is an entertaining and amiable young lady.

A large crowd attended the sale of E. C. Yeager, Monday, Jan. 2nd. Property sold well. Mr. Yeager and wife will leave immediately for the west. The community regret to give them up, but wish them success in their western home.

Miss Jennie Higgins, of Marcellus, visited Miss Georgia Dunn last week.

Miss Pearl Aldridge has matriculated in the Lancaster school for the coming term.

Miss Miriam Herring, of Louisville, is visiting her uncle, T. L. Herring.

Miss Sasie Sutton spent a few days of last week with Mrs. J. L. Hamilton in Lancaster.

Dr. John Darham, a graduate of the Louisville medical college, visited his uncle, Geo. Darham, during the holidays.

Mr. James Royston, who is in business in Waddy, Ky., visited his parents last week.

Miss Mary Lynn Mock, of Danville, visited her cousin, Hallie Rice during the holidays.

Misses Sallie and Lee Herring and Anna Pollard returned Friday from Peebles Valley, where they have been attending school, to spend the holidays.

John Johnson and sister, Miss Nell, of Upper Garrard, spent part of last week with their cousins, Eliza and Miss Jennie Perkins.

Miss Mary Kuykendall, who is attending high school at Shelbyville, came home last week to spend the holidays, accompanied by her guest, Miss Virginia Nunn.

Robert Humphrey and wife, and A. J. Chestnut and wife of Danville, visited their parents last week.

IN MEMORIAM

LOWELL, Ky., Dec. 22, '98.

On the 11th night of Dec. '98, death visited our home and took away the one that was most dear and precious to us. Our grief is very deep, the loss of our dear father. We all know the reason why God called him first, it was because he was nearest ready. God knows best always. His death All things Well. Why, dear friends, there is none of you know what an awful thing it is to stand over a dear, good father, as he was and see him bleed his life blood away and not one thing you can do for him, unless you have had the trial of it. It is hard, but we have it to bear. Our loss is his great gain. All we can do is, trust in the same God that has taken our dear one from us. All that we could do was not enough. God's power is greater than all men.

We thank our many friends for their kindness during our bereavement.

PAUL GASTINEAU.

A CLUB.

To be organized in this city. Of interest to all.

The undersigned, a committee on organization, proposes to establish a Club in Lancaster, Ky., for the special purpose of engaging in those discussions and exercises which tend to the cultivation of our intellectual, social and religious natures.

The club is not to be under the control of any denomination of Christians; but we hope to make it a great benefit to the whole community and therefore we invite the hearty co-operation of all who feel interested in such an enterprise—especially the Y. M. C. A., pastors of all the churches, with their congregations, all lawyers and physicians, and the faculty and pupils of the Lancaster Graded School. We are encouraged to believe that a sufficient number of competent ladies and gentlemen will become members of the Club to insure the rendering of an interesting and instructive program at every regular meeting. All are invited to attend, whether they become members of the Club or not, as by so doing they can enjoy many of the benefits of the Club themselves, encourage and extend the good work through the community.

Our first meeting will be held in the Masonic Hall on Saturday, January 7, at 7 o'clock p. m. Miss Lella S. McKeel, president of the Western, Oxford, Ohio, will give a talk on "The Up-to-Date Woman." The committee on music will favor us with some good pieces and Dr. J. L. McKee will give an abstract of Bishop Butler's Argument on the Future Life.

We sincerely hope a large crowd of both young and old will meet with us. G. B. SWINERD, ED. GAINES, H. W. BATSON, LOUIS LANDREY. All the musicians in town have been asked to take part, and a large crowd is expected.

Mr. S. A. Fackler, Editor of the Micanopy Fla. Hustler, with his wife and children, suffered terribly from La Grippe. One Minute Cough Cure was the only remedy that helped them. It acted quickly. Thousands of others use this remedy as specific for La Grippe, and its exhausting aftereffects.

WHEN THE RECORD TALKED FOR

Telephones in Lancaster, the croakers laughed.

Electric lights in Lancaster, the croakers laughed.

New Police Court room, Engine House and county offices, the croakers laughed.

A better train service, the croakers laughed.

Electric lights in the Court House the croakers laughed.

Sunday mails, the croakers laughed.

Telegraph office up town, the croakers laughed.

A night policeman, the croakers laughed.

A vault at the Cemetery, the croakers laughed.

A handsome, new hotel, the croakers laughed.

A fine, up-to-date Opera House, the croakers laughed.

Better side-walks, the croakers still laughed.

For our people to get a hustle on 'em, the croakers laughed.

Now, when the croakers get a look at new buildings which will go up in the spring, we hope they will slip on the newly-paved Public Square and break their trifling necks. Hey?

J. W. MILLER, Mgr.
McIntosh Distillery Co.

Corn is worth $1.50 at Lexington.
James Bourne bought a nice mule at Yeager's sale for $80.

R. F. Robinson bought of George Siler a nice lot of hogs at $2.
B. F. Robinson bought of Geo. Evans some 120 lb. steers at $2.75.

G. A. Swainbroad sold to Cyrus Tason a bunch of cattle at $25 per head.
W. G. and C. W. Anderson sold to J. W. Miller a nice bunch of calves at $21 per head.

YOU should know that FOLEY'S HONEY TAR is absolutely the best remedy for all diseases of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Dealers are authorized to guarantee it to give satisfaction in all cases.

B. F. Robinson marketed a carload of hogs in Cincinnati the past week for which he paid 21 to 25 per pound.

B. F. Robinson shipped a carload of butcher cattle to Cincinnati 1000 head for which he paid 21 to 25 cents.

The Harrodsburg Democrat notes the following sales: A car load fat hogs at $2.50, 15,000 pounds tobacco in Mercer and Washington counties, highest price 6 cents, lowest 4 cents; car load yearling males purchased in that county during past month of from $19 to $20 per head, the animals were shipped to Montgomery, Ala., this week.

Mr. Eliza Berry, of this place, says he never had anything so like himself as good and give such quick relief from rheumatism as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He was bothered greatly with shooting pains from hip to knee and he used this balm, which afforded prompt relief. B. F. BAKER, druggist, St. Paul, Ohio. For sale by R. E. McRoberts, Druggist.

The Courier-Journal's review of the leaf tobacco market is summed up as follows: Sales have fallen off, on account of the half crop of 1897, to the smallest figure since 1888. Prices are much lower than last year, but the value of the low grades have been well maintained, so that the returns are larger than might have been expected, and the average per head is ahead of the 1897 record. The new crop, both of Burley and dark, is large, but is not a record breaker. The Burley crop has been badly damaged, but the dark is the finest grown in fifteen years and commands good prices. The market promises to be better after the leaf-

January in the Home Journal.

The New Year's Ladies' Home Journal gives assurance of a purpose to make that magazine more useful and helpful, and stronger in its literary and artistic features, during 1899 than ever before. It contains a number of practical articles, besides a series of features of interest, and opens with a full-page drawing by W. L. Taylor, illustrating Longfellow's "The Village Blacksmith." Early Colonial life is introduced in "The Most Authentic Social Event in America"—the annual ball of the Philadelphia "Assembly," an article that will be read with unusual interest. A close-range view of strong interest is given of the life of the late Mrs. C. W. C. T. U., which, although an organization of less than twenty-five years existence, numbers its members by hundreds of thousands, and carries on forty departments of work along moral and social lines.

But not content with home work alone, "Round the world missionaries" were sent by our National organizations to every continent on the globe, and to the islands of the seas to educate and organize. A world's W. C. T. U. was the result, and now many other countries are bound to our own by white ribbon bands, which have indeed "belted the globe." A delegate from California, at the recent St. Paul Convention illustrated the aggressive spirit of this organization when she urged that her own state be the next meeting place of the Convention, and added as a pleasant surprise, that missions would soon be organized in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. California would be the center of the nation, and of national temperance work, and therefore the proper place to hold the Convention.

The death of Florence E. Willard, for nineteen years president of the National, was the severest blow the organization has ever had to meet. It is needless to enlarge in this short sketch, a woman, for whose death the flags at our national capital were hung at half mast. Her loss is incalculable, but her work will go on. Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, the newly elected president is a woman of most noble qualities, and will doubtless win the devotion of the followers whose banner she holds aloft, and inspire in them fresh courage and zeal.

In 1885 Mrs. Lucy A. Neild, organized in Lancaster the first union of Garrard county. Regular meetings have been held weekly from that time and much good work has been done in many departments. Seed has been sown, through scientific, temperance instruction, moral contest, loyal temperance legends, and in other ways which will doubtless some day spring up and bring forth fruit.

During the existence of this union, temperance issues have at different times come before the people for settlement, and though not empowered with the privileges of the ballot, it is doubtless largely due to the labors of these Christian women that the open saloon is no longer a menace to the boys of our town.

Five presidents have stood at the head during its existence; Mrs. Fowle, Mrs. Yancey, Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Hubble and Mrs. Gill. The present officers are, Mrs. Gill, president; Mrs. Parra, Rec. Secretary; Mrs. Royston, Cor. Sec'y; Mrs. Patterson, Treasurer.

The union stands with open doors, eager to welcome, regardless of creed or denomination, all who will enter its ranks, and engage in the warfare for pure lives, unclouded brains, and Home Protection.

Lancaster W. C. T. U.

The Lancaster Womans Christian Temperance Union held a public reception in the Masonic Hall Thursday afternoon from two to four o'clock. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. W. A. Yantis, of Paragould, Ark., who was visiting in this city. Mrs. Yantis is a zealous member of the organization and has done noble work "For God, Home and Native Land." She was a member of the local Union when a resident of Lancaster. A large number of ladies were present at the meeting, all delighted at the opportunity of again meeting their old friend and co-worker. We will take occasion to use here the article prepared for our souvenir edition, but was crowded out. It is a brief

HISTORY OF LANCASTER UNION.

The Womans Christian Temperance Union is doubtless more widely known than any other organization of women in this, and possibly in any other country.

It was organized in 1874, one year after the great temperance crusade, which swept over the land. This crusade, at the time, was denounced in bitter terms by its foes, and looked upon with suspicion by friends; but time has proven the justice of the crusade's cause and methods. Desperate diseases demand desperate remedies. Time had come to act, and the women singing, "Give to the winds thy fears: Hope and be undismayed," went forth from their own bright fire sides, to face scathing criticism and bitter abuse; yet knew not themselves how great was the tower to be erected on the foundations which they were to lay. For the "Crusade" could not last always, and out of it grew its "Sober second thought." The W. C. T. U., which, although an organization of less than twenty-five years existence, numbers its members by hundreds of thousands, and carries on forty departments of work along moral and social lines.

But not content with home work alone, "Round the world missionaries" were sent by our National organizations to every continent on the globe, and to the islands of the seas to educate and organize. A world's W. C. T. U. was the result, and now many other countries are bound to our own by white ribbon bands, which have indeed "belted the globe."

A delegate from California, at the recent St. Paul Convention illustrated the aggressive spirit of this organization when she urged that her own state be the next meeting place of the Convention, and added as a pleasant surprise, that missions would soon be organized in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. California would be the center of the nation, and of national temperance work, and therefore the proper place to hold the Convention.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at R. E. McRoberts' Drug Store.

Letter from Judge Sandifer.

Dawson Springs, Ky., Dec. 29, '98.
Friend Louis:—The Souvenir Edition of last Friday is a beauty, and certainly speaks well of the Editor and all his office force. In looking over it I was astonished at the labor, and pains taking required in collecting so much of interest to the citizens of Lancaster, and those who have lived here. I very readily recognized each face. To me each was a striking likeness. My old friend Col. Yantis, Capt. F. J. White, W. H. Kinnaird, Theo. Dorey and others that I need not name, brought to my mind many pleasant associations; that are past. Though not a native of Lancaster, spent the better part of my life in it, and in memory often visit the dear old town and county, who had honored me far above my merit. Since my first introduction in Lancaster society I have loved it, and when circumstances made it necessary for me to seek a home elsewhere, after a citizenship for twenty six years, I returned to my old native county Boyle. God bless Lancaster and give it much future prosperity.

Your friend,
N. Sandifer
